DAY 08

After a buffet breakfast, check out and enjoy the guided Golden Circle tour today. On the Golden Circle tour, you will experience three of Iceland's most famous and impressive attractions: Thingvellir National Park, the geothermal area of Geysir and the Gullfoss waterfall. Thingvellir National Park is located right at the boundary between the North American and Eurasian tectonic plates. The results of the continents drifting apart is clearly visible in the landscape. It is also a place of great historical importance being the site of the ancient Icelandic parliament, Alþingi, which was established in 930 AD. At the geothermal area of Geysir there are several different hot springs, amongst them the very active Strokkur which sends a column of boiling water high into the air every 6-10 minutes. Gullfoss is a majestic waterfall in the Hvítá river which in two stages plunges more than 30 meters into a deep crevice. It is by many considered one of the most beautiful waterfalls in the country. Buffet local lunch en route at the Tomato Farm. Tour of the Tomato Farm. Tonight enjoy an Indian dinner.

Blue Lagoon

Gullfoss the Golden Falls
